THE CARR CENTER HORSEBACK RIDING PROGRAM

Formal horseback riding programs for the disabled have been organized since 1953 in England and since 1969 in the United States with the establishment of the North American Riding for the Handicapped Association, Inc.

The "Special Riders" program is organized under the auspices of The Carr Center, Inc.

Riding is an excellent form of therapeutic recreation. Riding helps to develop self-awareness, self-confidence and self-discipline. It also strengthens and relaxes muscles, improves posture, balance and coordination, while increasing joint mobility.

The Carr Center is the coordinator of the local horseback riding program. Persons who participate need to obtain a medical referral from their physician indicating diagnosis, medications, precautions and associated disorders. Persons with dislocated hips or paralysis above the level of T-5 of the spinal cords are not recommended to ride horses for safety reasons.

Horseback riding sessions run for six consecutive weeks. Sessions are conducted by the coordinator aided by three volunteers for each rider and horse. Adaptive equipment is utilized when necessary and all riders must wear protective headgear (provided by The Carr Center). Leg braces are optional during riding sessions. LONG PANTS AND SHOES WHICH SUPPORT THE ANKLES MUST BE WORN BY ALL RIDERS. Shoes with buckles are discouraged.

The benefits a disabled person receives from learning to ride a horse are tremendous. We are extremely proud of our therapeutic riding program as it rewards everyone involved, including riders, volunteers, and staff.
